

交流協定校（英語圏）派遣留学選考試験過去問題（2016～2018 年度）

●2018年度派遣の出題

Choose one of the three topics below and write a short essay:

- 1) How would you describe your personality to someone who did not know you?
- 2) What is the most important thing you've learned at Daito Bunka University? Why is it important to you?
- 3) What do you expect to be doing ten years from now?

●2017年度派遣の出題

Choose one of the three topics below and write a short essay:

- 1) To make an overseas study experience a success, one of the most important things is staying healthy. What specific things would you do to stay healthy while you are studying abroad? If you did get sick while studying overseas, how would you deal with it?
- 2) When you study abroad, you will meet many people for the first time. Are you good at meeting and talking to new people? How can you improve your ability to communicate with new people?
- 3) One of the best ways to have a successful overseas study trip is to keep a record of your experiences. How do you plan to keep a record of your experiences in the foreign country? For example, if you write a diary, how often and what will you write in the diary?

●2016年度派遣の出題

Choose one of the three topics below and write a short essay:

- 1) When studying overseas, is it important to attend all your classes? Why or why not? If you are sick and must be absent from class, what should you do?
- 2) How can you improve your English more quickly during your time abroad? What strategies and policies can you adopt? For example, will you speak English even to other Japanese students? Why or why not?
- 3) You will encounter many cultural differences while studying abroad. There will be things you like, and things you do not like. For example, many Americans will hug you and even kiss you as a greeting. What can you do if some cultural differences make you uncomfortable?